UAF SOCIAL MEDIA POLICY

The Syndicate at its meeting held on 01-07-2017, had approved the UAF Social Media Policy. The policy duly vetted by Legal Advisor of the University is placed below for information and implementation by the students and employees of the varsity in letter and spirit. The University of Agriculture, Faisalabad (UAF) Social Media Policy lays out rules and guidance for student and employee use of social media while studying at UAF. This is intended to make students and employees aware that misuse of social media can have impact on them, other students, the staff and UAF's reputation. These rules are in accordance with the Constitution and Laws of Pakistan, which guarantee certain rights subject to limitations. This policy advocates use of social media for personal and professional benefits, but also encourages caution about its risks. This policy is also cross referenced with the following other UAF rules and procedures: University of Agriculture Act, 1973, University of Agriculture Students (Discipline and Conduct) Regulations, 1978.

A. This policy applies to: Students: (i) in their status as current students ("students") of UAF, and Employees: (i) includes teachers, officers, and current administration members (ii) both temporary and permanent at all Grade levels.

B. Scope of the policy: (i) For the purpose of this policy, 'social media' is defined as interactive tools available via the internet. Content is created and shared by individuals using these tools that are administered by third party intermediaries. These include but are not limited to Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Instagram, Snapchat, LinkedIn, and Flickr, as well as websites that allow public posting. (ii) This policy applies to social media communications, directly or indirectly referencing UAF, made publicly or privately, from anywhere on-campus or off-campus, to an individual or limited group or the world. (iii) UAF acknowledges that social media is used for personal purposes and nothing in this policy authorizes illegal intrusion into the lives of individuals. (iv) Wherever personal communications are made by students or employees identifying or referencing UAF, the student or employee should make it clear that their account or page does not express opinions on behalf of UAF.

C. Freedom of Speech: (i) Nothing in this policy is intended to limit the Freedom of Speech guaranteed by Article 19 of the Constitution of the Islamic Republic of Pakistan, provided that it is exercised within the bounds of the law of Pakistan. (ii) This policy will apply to students and employees in accordance with the Pakistan Electronic Crime Act, 2016.

D. Responsibilities: (i) Students and employees should be mindful of their association as community when using members of the UAF social media. (ii) Students and employees must ensure their online conduct is consistent with the respective Admission Undertaking or Employment Agreement they sign when enrolling in UAF. (iii) Students and employees must be aware that social media communications are potentially available to anyone, including future universities and employers. They should be mindful of how they wish to present themselves and UAF, and the permanent nature of online communications even if they delete them from one place. Once created, digital communications have the potential to spread and be shared without the control of the original creator. (iv) Students and employees are encouraged to avoid posting content they would not wish to be made available to the public or say to someone personally. (v) Students and employees managing UAF's official accounts on social media must seek prior permission before posting anything. (vi) When using private accounts, students and employees must add a disclaimer if UAF is mentioned in a public communication.

E. Standards of Conduct: (i) Students and employees are advised to maintain respectful communications on social media in accordance with this policy. (ii) A student or employee's use of social media should not infringe on anyone's dignity, privacy or reputation. (iii) The following is a list of potentially unacceptable uses of social media: a. Confidential information as classified by UAF or a relevant person. (This may include unpublished research) b. Personally identifying information about an individual such as their names, contact information, addresses etc. without their permission. c. Comments posted using a fake account or a real person's name without their consent or knowledge subject to Section C. d. Materials or content that are deemed threatening, harassing, discriminatory, obscene, or defamatory towards an individual, entity or UAF Act, 2016. f. Any officially unverified information that may compromise the reputation or safety of (UAF and its community of current and former employees and students. (iv) Students and employees must never post an image or video of another person without the consent of the individual. If the aggrieved individual requests that the image or video be taken down, the student or employee responsible must comply.

F. Complaint Mechanism and Cyberbullying: (i) In accordance with this Policy, UAF will establish a 'Complaint Cell' for students to submit any of their complaints to UAF either in person or via email or social media. (ii) Students may complain about anything related to their experience as a student, an issue referenced in Section E, or instances of cyberbullying or harassment by UAF employees or students. (iii) Cyberbullying or harassment may constitute: a. Spreading malicious and untrue rumors or lies about the aggrieved person. b. Sending obscene content and material to the aggrieved person. c. Intimidating, blackmailing or aggressive behavior. d. Humiliating or sexually harassing the aggrieved person. (iv) Cyberbullying may also take place via email, text or instant messaging. (v) UAF will take strict action against any form of cyberbullying or harassment, and encourages aggrieved students to come forward.

G. Intellectual Property: (i) Students and employees must ensure they have permission to post any third party's intellectual property, including images, text or video, when posting content on social media. (ii) UAF is not responsible for any content posted by its students or employees unless it was done with prior authorization by UAF. (iii) Students or employees may not infringe on the Intellectual Property of UAF by using UAF brand names and trademarks in violation of the law.

H. Role of UAF: (i) UAF reserves the right to read, intercept, and review student and employee activities conducted using UAF's IT resources, within the limits of the law. (ii) UAF Disciplinary Committee shall constitute a Dispute Resolution Panel ("Panel") consisting of 3 members of the Administration, who shall direct the investigation on the issue. (iii) When a breach of this policy is discovered or reported, The Panel will review the circumstances and decide on an appropriate course of action pursuant to this policy and the laws of Pakistan. (iv) When a student or employee is under investigation by the Panel, the student or employee will receive due notice, an opportunity to respond and appeal the initial decision. (v) Breach of this policy may result in suspension, expulsion or termination of employment from UAF. If it involves a violation of the Laws of Pakistan, UAF reserves the right to seek further action. Furthermore, an aggrieved third party is free to seek legal action if they choose to do so. (vi) The Panel may take action regardless of when and where the breach was committed. (vii) Any complaints received by UAF in reference to this policy will be kept anonymous.
