- if the firm fails to deliver any or all of the Goods within the period (s) specified in the Contract, or within any extension thereof granted by the Purchaser pursuant to specific terms of the contract; or
  - if the firm fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the Contract;
  - if the firm in the judgment of the Purchaser, has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for or in executing the contract for the purpose of this clause; "Corrupt practice" means the offering, giving, receiving or soliciting of anything of value to influence the action of a public official in the procurement process or in contract execution.
- "fraudulent practice" means a misrepresentation of facts in order to influence a procurement process or the execution of a contract to the detriment of the Borrower, and includes collusive practice among Bidders (prior to or after bid submission) designed to establish bid prices at artificial non-competitive levels and to deprive the client of the benefits of free and open competition.

- In the event the client terminates the Contract in Whole or in part, pursuant to this clause, the Purchaser may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, Goods similar to those undelivered, and firm shall be liable to the client for any excess costs for such similar Goods. However, the firm shall continue performance of the Contract to the extension not terminated.

S. Force Majeure:-

- Notwithstanding the other provisions of the contract, the firm shall not be liable for forfeiture of its Performance security, liquidated damages, or termination for default if and to the extent that its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the Contract is the result of an event of Force Majeure.
- For purposes of this clause, "Force Majeure" means an event beyond the control of the firm and not involving the firm fault or negligence and not foreseeable. Such events may include, but are not restricted to, acts of the client in its sovereign capacity, wars or revolutions, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, and freight embargoes.
- If a Force Majeure situation arises, the firm shall promptly notify the client in writing of such condition and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the Purchaser in writing, the firm shall continue to perform its obligations under the Contract as far as is reasonable practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.

T. Termination for Insolvency:-

- The Client may at any time terminate the contract by giving written notice to the firm if the firm becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. In this event, termination will be without compensation to the firm, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the client.

U. Termination for Conviction:-

- The Client, by written notice sent to the firm, may terminate the Contract, in whole or in part, at any time for its convenience. The notice of termination shall specify that termination if for the Purchaser's convenience, the extent to which performance of the firm under the Contract is terminated, and the date upon which such termination becomes effective.

- The Goods that are complete and ready for shipment within thirty (07) days after the firm's receipt of notice of termination shall be accepted by the client at the Contract terms and prices. For the remaining Goods, the client may elect:

- to have any portion completed and delivered at the Contract terms and prices; and/or
- to cancel the remainder and pay to the Supplier an agreed amount for partially completed Goods

V. Settlement of Disputes:-

- The dispute shall be referred to the client's Vice Chancellor, for settlement. His decision shall be final and binding on both the parties. The work under the contract shall if reasonably possible be withheld on the account of such proceeding unless they are subject of the dispute.
- Prior Notice for arbitration: If the firm intends to go for arbitration, he shall have to give 30 days' notice in writing informing the purchaser of his intention to refer to the points of difference or dispute of arbitration. He shall have to define clearly the point of difference and or dispute in his notice.
